

zelofane

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn) i set my own world wrapped in zelofane hoped to keep it dry this way got a new word to be satisfied i made it up to play it safe set up my own god wrapped in zelofane hoped to make it look real fine never thought that i'd be paralyzed now the sterile age keeps dyin' it's falling into pieces when alternation hurts so far from home no new religion

come medicate me
before silence caws, so
a setup for the fall

i had my own will wrapped in zelofane still sealed to prove me right recommend my inferior medicine to medicate the breeder

surrender

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

when i count to ten will the tin gods fly will tides decide to sleep and the sun lay down to die when i count to nine and all hope is gone my new reality will sting me like a thorn when i count to eight neverending fear and when seven is a drug then i'll be outta here and the storm has come to rest, so i let go surrender - and i'm terrified and it can't be right surrender - well i'm bound to fight, i hope it's easier for you when i count to six will the truth wear horns and five cannot agree as i go on to four now i count to three and all that remains is the pain of us two but no one sets the rules when the storm has come to rest, i let go

surrender - i feel terrorized but i'm bound to fight and god i hope it's easier for you yeah i hope it's easier for you and the day i'm down to one will come

surrender - and i'm bound to fight, i hope it's easier for you

Home

there's a blackened dog in the entrance hall and a waterfall of blood coming down the walls there's a big poisoned spider in the living room and the snake grins at me where ever i pass thru.

there's a demon holding the pillow tight for the weazel to come and suffocate the light and the devil sits right on the desk and the devil is right in my chest and the beast has its place right on my hand makes me feel like i'm safe in a rotten land there's a freak in the mirror inside the bath

now let me out so much more important please let me out and the fat feeds the fire to keep me warm as the flames feed the fiend to do more harm there's nothing for me to do and there's nothing to kill the fuel

there's a freak in the mirror, a cycopath

Godspeed

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

hey get in the car explore new streets as long as they're far away from the lives we're meant to endure cuz i found a map that's pretty old but i'm sure it gets us out of our misery at least for a while...

watch the world run away as fast as us and that's okay let's help it hide in the dust of our wheels 85 miles to find out how it feels ready or not let's give it a shot let's take a ride thru our fears

high speed on streets that will heal godspeed record won't stand

(hey hey hey hey) hey don't let us stop cuz we're yet too close to see what we got see our souls dirty as the road it takes so much time and space to let go but now we're gone we won't return (for good)

your godspeed record won't stand from slaves and beggars

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

so vulnerable empty but ready for more – so much more taste defeat but still you kneel down to stare – face down to the ground why bow your head and trust the word whose blood covers the earth

get off your rainbow

everywhere you go
you would sell your soul
you're alone recite your drill covered up but not your heart – shift yourself away go spill your ink stains of the past and nothing will last

don't know

it won't let you grow and you remain alone you're lost in the unknown

chimera

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

you can't read my mind it's all your ignorance innocence for the mob i won't understand but i know, it is something that you shape so people believe they could trust in you and as nothing comes for free you're beating the truth out of everyone with a simple lie

but you got nothing on me

did i say a word when you tried to put me down your eloquence for the mob triviality to go

cuz i'm bored by the dogma that you twist and i can't believe you're still tryin' to sell all this nonsense to the dead cuz your virus will never hold the cure this simple lie

and you mean nothing to me the only miracle is i'm alive again deafdumbnblind

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

i can't see anymore, i don't feel anymore
can't dream anymore was it better before running fast to be able to stay in the same place but it gets harder everyday yes, i'm paralyzed and my thighs burn i'm fuckin' weak but i carry on cuz i know life won't wait for me inhale exhale the daily shit i'm in as i'm still moving quickly i feel the ice getting thin one step aside and i crack i try hard not to overbalance too much weird information makes me blind

yeah, and what's next? What if i'm done will i be a mistake-free role model publicity?
Am i scared stop running? Yes i am i was as fucked up as the world around me Defy me if you can!
So i run but now i run to be deafdumbnblind and i know it's up to me to find my personal nirvana but i'm tired and disaffected i'm on my last leg and i'm so angry again

scarred fucking scarred will i gain nothing at all, learn nothing at all and all i wanted was something new and now i'm less than nothing

and now i'm nothing drug your lonely soul

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

sing the song you've never known for the sweetest child of innocence to burn light your fire
and let chaos be your guide along the way

everything that is wrong feels so right this time and it twists me upside down so i'm staggering thru all the mud that is mean and is me and i plead for endless tears to drug your lonely soul sing your song

sing that song irresistible to drug your lonely soul come drown me with your tears undone

no way out of here

nothing else is real

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

this is the way it ends so far from what i love starving as a friend is it the same upside down illusion is a drug self-deluding trend

way out of reach of my hands i'm triggered on the run and fired up in chains is it the same overlong when no one pulls the plug it's fading love away

and it's somewhere in between
somewhere on the way
before i fell apart

the fear has come and gone carrying me away drilled like a dog narcotic

i'm drowning, i'm doubting, i'm howling as a son

bleed for the better

you won't fight anymore cuz time has changed in a rush head over feet and you were gone you can't hide in a war eye for a dime is what it's for blood red horizon won't fade in your head anymore now bleed for the better

you feed our souls with your pain you don't cry anymore cuz all of your tears are sold die for the cameras catching your last breath see you come and go plenty of fuel to reload disposable jesus to carry our guns and bleed for the better

you've done all we wanted still we spill your blood
