

amnesia

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn) i put it to rest and kiss it goodbye still full of regrets no matter how hard i try i wish i was wrong but love won't change it hurts to the bone and numbs everything delirious, i miss how it feels it's easier, things will never change amnesia, make me forget i'm leaving you but i never will too silent to sleep too weak to ignore the cut is too deep i can't take it anymore i want it to stop but things have changed the love that i live never will be the same (late and vain save and tame)

twothree

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

back to where i was sickened from myself schizophrenic thoughts my mind is torn in twothree it's over

already gone
it's so bad i'm never done

i'm stuck in this i hate the creed i wear fuck you coward shit i feel i'm leaving

it's over
already gone
i'm never done, never done never watching satellites

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

staying up all night glad the day has gone watching satellites say goodbye sky is open wide made to seek and roam for a little ride to fade and cry see the silver eye filled with bitter pain and just wonder why it still looks so tame you still look so tame see the world from above and try not to cry can you save me love, can i save your love?

did you see enough, did you see enough?

wandering in the dark raised in belief of fear denying all the scars and play it safe dying shooting stars seem like golden tears made to fall apart and go to waste waking up at night glad the stars are gone watching rainclouds pass and close my eyes... reminder

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

wait for the sun forget why it's gone all in good time

a little step back and it's getting warm...so easy now no more regrets you're not here to fight you're back down to rest now breathe in and breathe out and make it a day more here you'll feel time will wait for you to remind you're free time will run till you'll be alright go for a walk away from your fear leave with a sigh but please don't give in rely on the fire in your eyes i'll give you all of my love to show you thru till you're fine but don't give in like we'd do, don't give in, don't tear it apart

so far off

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

let me speed the night away i'd start to believe if you want me to all the things you said are so fine while i keep trying to hold the line...not mine ...and i'm so tired it never stops, oh and still i'm moving but i'm stuck in here glad you know what i do best i'd step on the brake if you want me to you know your love makes me a mess let's get some fuel and off we go, we go ...and i'm so tired it never stops

and i can't wait until i'm there, somewhere and i feel guilty you're in here with me

so far off...

...off we go you break all your rules cuz i want you to and i'm your bad trip you know i can't lie while you still embrace the things i defy...your lie eerier

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn) you're on fire, see you glowing i'm like water and i drown you in when you're wired i'm exhausted try to keep up so you see me i'm trying not to be mean it's getting eerier

as you keep trying to mend it's getting serious as you decide not to end...dead end!

i'm inspired by silence now you're tired and you don't feel me at all when i'm screaming you're smiling i'd be leading but you can't see where i'm gone; past the point of no return

as you decide not to end...

...so much love that we can't hide but i'm tired of the fight fail

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn) what a day once again i'm in my way it's a waste cuz i don't believe in me i'm such a mess but i can't make it undone just wanna know, wanna know how hard i fell i think i failed i can't take it anymore now i'm by myself could you make me someone else i know i failed i don't want it anymore i can't see ahead need to reinvent myself to see this thru i would want it all again cuz i could walk to where you fly i know i'm wrong but somehow i need to know once again i need to know how hard i'll fall this time i think i'll fail i can't take it anymore

i know i'll fail i don't want it anymore

i'd do it all again, i'd go thru all again fall out

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn) so senseless i flow it feels like i'm too old or i'm too young for this damn hole as the virus still grows i'm crawling in the mud, in the dirt that some call home see me broken, crying and scared, i'm still falling now i guess that's not how you wanted me to be, well i'm sorry

and i dare to say - fall out i dare to say – i'm not as tough as you timeless it feels i'm climbing, stumbling back and forth but nothing here seems real and when sellout is gold then take a look on my inside, it makes you wanna run

i dare to say – i'm not as cold as you i'm bruised, too true and lost so angry, screaming, restless and rude i'm still falling i guess that's not how you expected me to be so i'm sorry, i'm sorry!

rewind

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

sure i'm doin' fine take a closer look and see if i'm lyin' i'm smiling at you all for a while but i left before i got here, i know you don't mind head down and i'm gone

stealing myself away
am i in too deep? – rewind

sealing my fate again
am i in too deep? – rewind...denied you're all so beautiful when we talk and don't say nothing at all believe me i would stay for a while but i left before i came here, and it's good you're blind

friendly fire

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

head down in the sand negativity on demand homophobic pride insecure inside and it's all someone else's fault cunning mental fraud about time to set anger free and throw it all at me

hard luck fills the name hatred is a game sorry for the weak when life is so damn bleak and there is not much to display up to lose the day so now it's time to set it free unburden it to me

on time next time

(music: milko/lichtenhahn/specker lyrics: lichtenhahn)

meet me at the top of the hills shortcut thru the fields where i placed my wish. take a little path on your right thats where i always fight when i can't decide. now keep walking straight for a while ignore my denial cuz it ain't my style... see the little tree in the mist and try to resist its heartnumbing kiss don't waste your time next time and say that you're mine before it starts again i'll be on time next time and say you'll be mine don't u look on either side cuz thats where they hide to steal your pride. then i meet u at the top of the hill and i swear you will be heavenly thrilled

when it grips it starts again when the trip is not the end
where my soul begins to bend
